Friday Notes

Last week's Giggle Corner: What kinds of music do planets listen to?
Answer: Neptunes

- ★ At church Wednesday evening, there were a lot of kids running around before church and a group sitting together (without an adult) who were messing around during the service. One Grace member spoke to Mrs. Hein about it, as it interrupted this person's worship. So as not to be a distraction to the worship of others, we are asking that the children please come to church with a parent and sit with them during the service.
- ★ Our last Christmas Eve rehearsal is Sunday at 8:45 a.m. For those who are participating in the service, please make sure to have your children at church on time so we can begin right away.
- ★ The Christmas party is on Tuesday beginning with lunch. The party planners want you to know that the menu will consist of chicken nuggets, fries, fruit, veggies, and a dessert. If this is something that your child will not eat, please make sure to send a lunch with them. School will dismiss at the regular time.
- ★ The Christmas Eve service is Wednesday, December 24, at 6:00 p.m. Please have your children at church ready to go at 5:30. As always, we will take a group picture and run through a few things beforehand.

Giggle Corner

Why do bees have sticky hair?

The following was written by a sixth grader for Language class.

The Hensons

The Hensons were a nice family,
Who set up silly Christmas trees,
Around the season, at the end of the year,
When folks sing carols for Christmas cheer.

Those trees were always flashy and bright,
And had many colors and different lights,
With bows, tinsel, and ornaments galore;
But the Hensons, they always wanted more.

The Hensons knew exactly what to do,
They bit off way more than they could chew.
More lights were added to the evergreen.
It was impossible to not be seen.

Everyone who saw the outrageous trees
Thought the family was crazy.
On Christmas Eve, the tree was done,
Then Hensons thought they could now have fun.

The branches strained underneath the weight
Of decorations that sealed the tree's fate.
When the Hensons got home from caroling,
They found, down the steps, their Christmas tree
barreling.
