Friday Notes

Answer to the hidden animal:
Is it the sixth or seventh? (horse)

- We had a really busy and fun week! There were lots of leaves to jump in and play with, a pizza lunch and Artists Adventure, and other various things (with plenty of work thrown in, too!) Please take a look at the pictures on page three for a sampling of our week.

- Mrs. Nelson is looking for a small pumpkin (5 ½ inch diameter or less). If anyone still has one and would be willing to donate it, please let her know!

- Mrs. Hein's take-apart bin has been a huge hit with her students! Please keep this in mind as you come across items that no longer work. We can take more throughout the year!

- At the Artist Adventure afternoon on Wednesday, there was a crocheting station. On the bulletin board in the hall by Mrs. Hein's room, there is a QR code with video lessons if any of the students wants to do some more. Parents, feel free to scan that code!

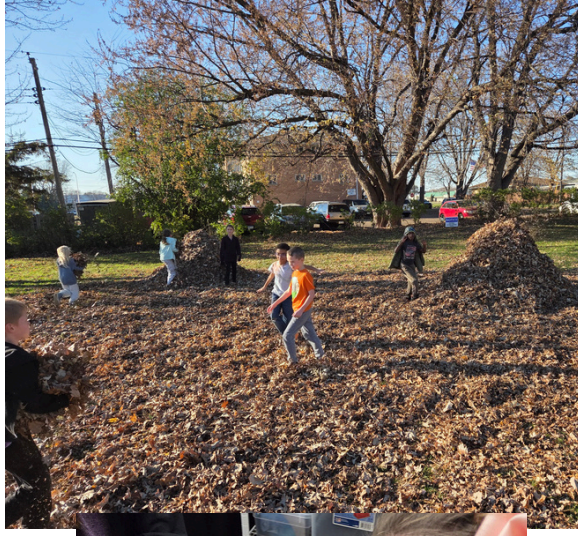

- Our Thanksgiving break will begin at noon on November 25. School will resume on Monday, November 30.

- Before dismissal on November 25, we will be drawing names for our Christmas gift exchange. The kindergarten classroom will not draw names, but will exchange between the two of them. Keep in mind that we ask that the price of the gifts be kept to $10 or less.
